ON THE COVER:

The first view of the new Café registers excitement and surprise with seniors Annie Flora (left) and Sophia Looney. Other students enjoy their first lunch in the newly remodeled space.

Dear Alumnae and Friends,

Last fall we enjoyed the grand opening of our new cafeteria, which our students have appropriately renamed the HNA Café. Before school, at break, during lunch, and after school, the new Café is alive with students enjoying the warm and welcoming atmosphere of this completely renovated space—to say nothing of the new technology, seating, and expanded food service. It has become a gathering place for students to relax and connect with their peers. Hospitality is a key value of the Sisters of the Holy Names and their schools and ministries. We are very pleased to take a step forward in providing our students with a space that encourages stronger personal connection and sense of community.

This summer, we will break ground on an exciting new project that will take HNA to the next level of a student-centered campus—while retaining all of the historic features we currently enjoy. A new, three-story building will be constructed that links our main building to the gym. It has been thoughtfully designed to integrate well with the original 1906 building and the 1990 gymnasium. We are not expanding the size of our student body, but we are creating new spaces that will enhance the student experience at HNA.

Plans for the new building include:

Basement level:

Fitness room • Additional entrance to cafeteria • Cougar kiosk sales

First floor:

Student commons

Second floor:

Two conference rooms to relieve our library from its current, frequent use as a testing and meeting space.

In addition to the new building, we will renovate the library and add a fully accessible elevator in the main building along the common wall adjoining the new facility.

Thanks to the strong response for our Transcend: Beyond Excellence Campaign, we have a solid base to begin this project. We will continue to raise funds for it throughout this year and next. Proceeds from last December's Deck the Dome will support the library renovation, and proceeds from this year's CHEER! Auction in March will support the installation of the new elevator.

Watch for the next issue of the Columns for updates on the progress of this project!

In other news, HNA Cougar teams are in the midst of another championship-banner year. Volleyball won both the Metro League and Sea-King District championships (the first District crown in the volleyball program's history). In cross country, Jordan Oakes '17 swept the State, District, and Metro first-place medals and was named Gatorade Washington State Runner of the Year; as a team, HNA's cross country runners took eighth at State. Eleven Cougar swim/dive athletes advanced to their State tournament, as did HNA soccer. And this just in: HNA gymnasts have won the Metro League gymnastics championship for the third year in a row.

In an unprecedented honor, no fewer than 44 of our visual art students participated in a solo showing of their art at the Seattle Art Museum throughout the month of January. I hope many of you had an opportunity to sample the work of our many amazing young artists.

Thank you for your interest and support of our beloved Academy.

Sincerely,

Liz Eldredge Swift '71
Head of School and Principal

Class of 2019 Legacies Welcomed to HNA

Each fall, the Alumnae Office welcomes those 9th-grade students who are Academy legacies—students with relatives who are attending or have graduated from HNA—with dessert at a bring-your-lunch-gathering. Nearly a third of the Class of 2019 attended the fall 2015 event, held in the SAC. Pictured are the daughters and granddaughters of HNA alumnae and those who have the most alumnae relatives.

Which 9th grade student has the most relatives who graduated from HNA?

Right, pictured (L-R): Olivia Welch with 8 (mother, Monica Welch '79; four aunts; three cousins). Emily Flora with 6 (mother, Monica Diesher Flora '85; grandmother, Louise Fitzgerald Flora '49; a sister; a cousin; and aunts). Caitlin Manning (mother, Ann Marie O'Leary Manning '80; and grandmother, Patricia Long O'Leary '50). Kaeli Fisher with 6 (mother, Liz McKee Fisher '77 (deceased); three aunts; two cousins). Gracie Ginaven with 13 (mother, Tina O'Brien '84; one aunt; numerous cousins).

HNA Represented at SNJM Youth Justice Forum

Abby Drake '96 (center) and students (L-R) Erika Ortega-Ortiz '18, Colleen Martinez '17, Mataya Skraba '17, and Ally Schmidt '18 are pictured on a visit to the SNJM Congregational House in Longueuil, across the St. Lawrence River from Montréal, where Blessed Mother Marie Rose founded the SNJM order in 1843.

In July 2015, four HNA students travelled to Montréal, Québec with HNA Social Studies teacher and alumna, Abby Drake '96, to participate in the 3rd Youth Forum. Students and teachers from 13 SNJM-affiliated schools located around the world joined together to learn about key social issues being addressed by the Sisters of the Holy Names including human trafficking, water as a right for all, and immigration. During the week-long forum the students made presentations, discussed issues, and participated in several service projects in the greater Montréal area. The students and Abby felt the memorable experience was enriching and life-changing. It provided an understanding of the essential common values of the SNJM sisters and their commitment to service and social justice.

A SPACE FOR COMMUNITY AND CAMARADERIE:

New HNA Café Opens to Raves

Students gaped in disbelief in September at their first glimpses of the new HNA Café—the basement cafeteria space previously known to five decades of Academy students for its less-than-charming décor, barracks-like seating, and limited menus.

The space's transformation during the 2015 summer break is dramatic.

- Handsome new terrazzo flooring.
- Increased natural light and new LED fixtures.
- Choices of booths or café-style seating.
- Significantly expanded food-service area, created by expanding the footprint into what were once the senior lounge and a laundry area (in boarding-school days).
- Wall-mounted, flat-screen TVs.
- New grab & go food stations with new, healthy-menu choices, instant-hot stations, and expanded self-service stations, with high-efficiency microwaves.
- Abundant charging stations for digital devices.

"If you think about all the meaningful relationships and dialogue that happen over a shared meal, an inviting cafeteria is fundamental. It's a space of their own where the students can get nourished, relax, and grow in community with each other."

— Javier & Grace Fosado (parents of Maya '18), Transcend Campaign donors whose gift supported the HNA Café

"HOSPITALITY: Being a gracious, accepting, and welcoming presence for each person."

"Our vision was to create a space that is a place of gathering and community for our students. We are so pleased the Café has a wonderful feel of friendship and camaraderie. That sense of belonging and of hospitality is something very much rooted in the Sisters of the Holy Names—it's one of our key values."

— Liz Eldredge Swift '71, Head of School & Principal

"My first reaction to the new Café was WOW! It exceeded my expectations in every way possible. I love the open atmosphere, all the new places to eat with friends, and the new technologies to help with speed and service."

– Mackenzie Jorgensen '16

"It is the perfect environment to relax or focus. It's especially cool how people from all grades share the same space, because it provides HNA with a stronger community feel. I am so thankful for all of the generous people who helped make the construction and renovation of the cafeteria possible!"

– Kristen Andersen '17

"I like the booths, the frozen-food options, and the artwork displays on the TVs. The new Café makes me feel more proud of our school and of how modern we are. The Café is a great place to meet with friends to work on homework, eat, or just talk."

– Kristen Deife '16

"The Café adds a more sophisticated atmosphere to HNA."

– Angela Cao-Hong '17

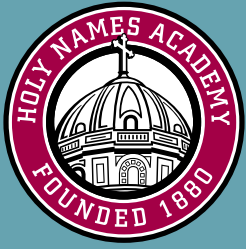

"The new Café has made students much more excited about HNA, and it brings about a renewed sense of school spirit and unity."

– Amelia Jenkins '16

"Family gatherings are very important to us. Whether it be a Sunday dinner or a big Christmas Eve dinner with 40 people at our house, food brings everyone together and memories are created. The [HNA Café] is a place students can come together to catch up before and after school, and in between, a place to be with their friends and, of course, enjoy their lunch."

Transcend: Beyond Excellence

THE CAMPAIGN FOR HOLY NAMES ACADEMY

10 Million Reasons to Celebrate!

$10,531,942

(TO BE EXACT)

Thanks to the commitment of this extraordinary community of generous alumnae, trustees, current and past parents, faculty/staff and friends, we celebrate the success of the Academy's largest fundraising effort—Transcend: Beyond Excellence—The Campaign for Holy Names Academy.

With a renewed commitment—to ensure financial accessibility to families of all socio-economic backgrounds, faculty and staff professional development and ongoing stewardship of facilities that enhance teaching and learning while preserving the Academy's wise stewardship of its historic building—HNA is poised today to continue its reputation of being the premier education institution for young women throughout the region and beyond.

To everyone who contributed to Transcend: Beyond Excellence—The Campaign for Holy Names Academy, thank you for your assistance in realizing an extraordinary vision for the Academy.

A Celebration of Gratitude

The Academy's Annual Giving program kicks off each year with a celebration for donors in gratitude for all that they do to support the school and the mission of HNA. The 2015 event, at Sand Point Country Club in September, gathered parents of current students, alumnae, alumnae parents, and trustees for a lovely dinner and program. The Annual Giving program is an important part of HNA fundraising, providing financial aid for over one-third of students; enhancing faculty, staff, and coaches' salaries; maintaining the historic building; and supporting special projects. The 2015-2016 goal for Annual Giving is $675,000.

Eva Strickland '03, Alumnae Board and Annual Giving Committee member, began the evening's program with a prayer. The featured speaker was alumna Christen Heye '09. While a student at HNA, Christen participated in varsity volleyball and the Student Ambassador program, and was a co-valedictorian. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Boston College in 2013, and went directly into BC's Graduate School of Nursing, earning a Master of Science in

Christen Heye '09 and Eva Strickland '03

Nursing as an Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner last May. Christen moved back to the Seattle area and is currently employed as a Nurse Practitioner on the Heme Malignancy service at the Seattle Cancer Care Alliance, where she works with patients undergoing treatment and surveillance for cancers of the blood and bone marrow.

Christen spoke of her time at HNA as one of great growth, of being challenged academically, spiritually, and as a leader. "Looking back," she said, "the knowledge and values instilled in me during my four years at Holy Names have allowed me to become the ambitious, faith-filled, fiercely loyal, and open-minded woman that I am today."

"...THE KNOWLEDGE AND VALUES INSTILLED IN ME DURING MY FOUR YEARS AT HOLY NAMES HAVE ALLOWED ME TO BECOME THE AMBITIOUS, FAITH-FILLED, FIERCELY LOYAL, AND OPEN-MINDED WOMAN THAT I AM TODAY."

Christen was a financial-aid scholarship recipient at HNA. "I can say with confidence that I would not be where I am today without God, my family and friends, and my education, both from Boston College and Holy Names Academy. As a scholarship recipient, I know first-hand that the support from alumnae, donors, and friends of Holy Names Academy allows young women like myself to not only gain the knowledge and tools they need to realize their dreams, but to belong to a nurturing and empowering community."

ENDOWMENT & SCHOLARSHIP RECEPTION 2015:

Benefactors, Meet Your Future World-Changers

Giving is generally perceived as an act of selflessness. But to alumnae parent John Holt (Gemma '13, Katrina '15), support for a Holy Names Academy scholarship endowment—like the Holt Family Endowment he and his wife, Susan Trainor Holt, established—is garnished with a dose of self-interest.

"We give for two reasons, one out of gratitude, the second out of self-interest," Holt told an October gathering of more than 100 donors and many student scholarship recipients at the annual HNA Endowment and Scholarship Reception.

"Maybe it will be one of these recipients who will make the world better, in spite of the world's considerable, and perhaps growing, complexities," Holt explained. "Which helps all of us—including my kids, grandkids, and great-grandkids— thus the self-interest!"

The reception is an annual opportunity for those who support named endowments and scholarships, as well as members of the Holy Names Academy Legacy Society, to meet socially, one-on-one, with the current students their generosity supports.

One of those grateful young women is Angelou Dunton '16, the current recipient of the Goldsmith Family Scholarship, who also spoke at the Endowment and Scholarship Reception.

The students shared their experiences from their service trip to the Dominican Republic, a journey partially funded by the May Schwarz O'Brien '42 Travel Endowment Fund.

Pictured (L-R): Sister Judy Ryan, SNJM '57; Sister Carol Ann McMullen, SNJM '57; and Judy Marl Killion '57 enjoyed a buffet lunch in the SAC following the reception and program. The three classmates attend the reception every year to meet with the recipient of the Ellen McMullen Hansen '57 Memorial Scholarship Endowment. Judy is also a member of the HNA Legacy Society.

At Deck the Dome 2015, Holiday Spirits Brighten December's Rains

Though a deluge filled the streets of Seattle on December 5, inside the halls of HNA, more than 400 festive—and generous—guests kicked-off the Christmas holidays in spirited fashion at the annual Deck the Dome celebration.

Music from the HNA Concert Choirs, Orchestra, and Jazz Band enlivened the joyous mood. Youssef and Michelle Sneifer, parents of Jenna '16, performed the ceremonial lighting of the Dome, having bid the highest for this honor at the spring 2015 CHEER! Auction.

Celeste McDonell '73 was honored with the Dorothy McBurney Fouty '50 Volunteer of the Year Award for her many years of wide-ranging service to the school, from serving on the Alumnae Board, for the past two years as the President, to serving on her class reunion committee, and several years on the HNA Planned Giving Committee. The Academy has long benefited from Celeste's generous spirit and professional and organizational skills.

Proceeds from Deck the Dome 2015, which exceeded $85,000, will help renovate the library, a project that will create a warm, student-centered atmosphere while preserving the historic space. Enhancements to the library will include new hardwood floors, a new circulation station, additional shelving, energy-efficient lighting and fixtures, and charging stations for the digital devices every student now carries.

ENDOWMENT & SCHOLARSHIP RECEPTION 2015

A standout on the Cougar volleyball team (co-captain of the 2015 Metro League and Sea-King District volleyball champions, a Seattle Times Star Times All-Area selection, Metro All-League First Team), Dunton told the gathering of her commitment to the ethos of the Academy.

"I have dedicated myself to being a scholar-athlete, and accomplishing what I have set out to accomplish takes up so much of my time," Dunton said. "I do wish that I had had more time for service, and it's because of the service-oriented culture of HNA that I know that I want to make the next part of my life about giving back and making a difference on a grander scale."

This fall, Dunton will attend the United States Coast Guard Academy, making an extraordinary commitment to service. And likely continuing to blossom into one of those young women John Holt cites as inspiration, the ones who will make the world a better place.

Thank You, Fall Phonathon Volunteers!

Endless thanks to all the volunteers who helped with the 2015 Fall Phonathon. A wonderful group of current parents, alumnae, trustees, and HNA Student Ambassadors devoted five October evenings to phoning more than 2,000 HNA alumnae, inviting them to be a part of Annual Giving. Special thanks to the alumnae who made calls; HNA alumnae love to hear from their classmates! Congratulations to the Class of 2008, who had the most volunteers from their class calling. They will enjoy a private tour of the Dome and the new HNA Café for their efforts!

Annual Giving is well on the way to this school year's goal of $675,000 in cash. Participation by all members of the HNA community—including 100% of the Alumnae Board, the Board of Trustees, the faculty and staff, and by over 97% of the parents of current students—is making this possible.

SPOTLIGHT ON
HNA LEGACY SOCIETY

CELESTE GAZAREK '70 AND MICHAEL ROBERTS

Faithful donors for many years, Celeste and Mike often remark on how blessed they were to have wonderful parents who supported education. Celeste's parents sacrificed so that she and her sisters could attend HNA. "After my parents," she says, "I truly credit HNA with the solid base of learning that has supported me throughout my life. The lifelong friendships made there are another wonderful benefit."

Mike and Celeste have included Holy Names Academy in their estate plans as part of their will. Through this gift, they will support other families who work hard to send their daughters to HNA. We are grateful for their dedication to the future of the Academy.

The Sifferman Family Legacy

Stan Sifferman

In 1998, Stan Sifferman established the Carrie O. Sifferman Memorial Scholarship at Holy Names Academy. He named the scholarship after his mother as a way to honor her, his sisters, and the generations of Sifferman women and relatives who have attended HNA over the years. From that first gift, Stan became an ardent and regular supporter of the Academy, encouraging his extended family to join in underwriting the endowment. For years, members of the Sifferman family have made donations to honor Stan's birthday, Christmas, Father's Day, and other special occasions.

In his early years, Stan was taught to serve his community, and, by a lifelong example, he taught his own family the same lessons.

Stan Sifferman's father, Karl, died in 1930 at age 43, leaving his widow, Carrie Ohmer Sifferman, to raise 11 children, ranging in age from 20 to a child who would be born several months after Karl's death. Stan was the eighth child, not even 5 years old when his father died. Shortly after her husband's death, Carrie and the children moved to Capitol Hill and St. Joseph's Parish.

Not surprisingly, they were a close-knit family. Stan had six brothers and four sisters. Three of his four sisters would graduate from Holy Names Academy: Ruth Sifferman Kearny '36, Edna Sifferman Lemeshko '41, and Carrie Sifferman Johnson '44.

Stan attended St. Joseph School and Seattle Preparatory School, graduating from the latter in 1943. After service in the United States Marines during World War II, he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Meteorology from the University of Washington. Stan worked in his chosen field until 1961, when the health of his daughter, Peg, a 1972 graduate of HNA, and his wife, Kathleen Sheehan Sifferman '37 required a move back to Seattle and a change of careers. Stan took a job at Boeing, working there for almost 30 years before retiring in 1990.

Stan further inspired the family to celebrate and honor another strong Sifferman woman who was shaped at the Academy – his brother Tom's wife, Bette Loggins Sifferman '41. After years of contributing to the scholarship named for their grandmother Carrie, Bette's children encouraged her to establish a separate scholarship—and all of her children continue to follow Stan's lead by honoring their own mother through the Bette Loggins Sifferman '41 Scholarship Endowment.

As for the Carrie O. Sifferman Memorial Scholarship, its corpus now stands at over $100,000, a testament to the dedication of the extended Sifferman family and a true legacy for Stan—who died on October 14, 2015 at the age of 90. A new generation continues what he started, ensuring that countless HNA students to come will continue to benefit from the exceptional Sifferman generosity.

IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER EXTENDED INDEFINITELY

Congress first passed the IRA charitable rollover legislation in 2006 to enable individuals to make contributions directly from their IRAs to a public charity. Congress recently passed a bill that allows the owner of a traditional or Roth IRA to make a tax-free transfer of up to $100,000 to a public charity, such as Holy Names Academy. This is now a permanent tax provision, retroactive to January 1, 2015.

Here are the Internal Revenue Service requirements:

- Donors must be at least age 70 ½ on the date of the gift.

- Funds must be transferred directly to Holy Names Academy from the IRA or Roth IRA.
- Up to $100,000 per donor may be contributed per year.
- The donor recognizes no taxable income on the transfer, but cannot claim an income tax deduction for the gift.
- The distribution can count toward the mandatory IRA withdrawal amount.

For more information about the HNA Legacy Society, named endowments, or the IRA rollover, please contact Conne McGlynn Bruce '89, Planned Giving Director, (206) 720-7835.

It's 2016! A Reunion Year for All Classes Ending in "1" or "6"

Looking to find out more about planning your class reunion for this year? Whether it is your 5th or your 75th reunion, contact Christie Spielman, Alumnae Director, to find out how she can assist you. The HNA Alumnae Office will provide great advice, a current class list, mailing labels, and postage for mailings, plus complimentary refreshments and a school tour if you choose to gather at HNA for all or part of your reunion. The office will publish your reunion information in the Columns and post it on the school's website.

Contact Christie Spielman, alumnae@holynames-sea.org, or (206) 720-7804, for more details.

THESE REUNIONS ARE SCHEDULED:

Class of 1941 (75th), 1946 (70th), 1951 (65th) will receive mailed invitations to the 50th Year/50PLUS reunion to be held on Saturday, May 14, 2016 at HNA. Mass will be celebrated in the chapel at 10 a.m., followed by a reception in the parlors. All alumnae are invited to attend, especially those celebrating more than 50 years since graduation.

Class of 1956 – 60-Year Reunion

Our reunion is in the planning stages. It will take place in late July 2016; details to be mailed soon.

Class of 1961 – 55-Year Reunion

Plan to attend the 50th Year/50PLUS reunion at HNA on May 14. Class members will gather following Mass at 10 a.m.

Class of 1966 – 50-Year Reunion

Reunion-weekend is May 13-14, 2016. There will be a catered evening gathering on Friday, May 13, at a classmate's home. On Saturday, May 14, HNA will host Mass and a luncheon for the class. Invitations will be mailed in February; more details can be found on the reunion website: www.holynamesacademy66.org.

Class of 1976 – 40-Year Reunion

Save the weekend of June 25-26, 2016. Details coming soon.

Class of 1995 21-year Reunion

Sunday, July 10, 2016 at HNA. Details soon.

Class of 1996 -20-Year Reunion

Weekend of August 12-14, 2016. More details soon.

Class of 2006 – 10-year Reunion

Saturday, October 15, 2016; wine and cheese at HNA and then a fun night out after! More details to come.

Congratulations, Kate Causbie '10 – 2015 Young Alumna Community Service Award Recipient

KATE CAUSBIE'S DEDICATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICE EXPERIENCES ARE INSPIRATIONAL.

While attending Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, from 2010 to 2014, Kate participated in the university's Inside-Out Prison Exchange course, held at the local Juvenile Detention Center. As an outcome of the course, the Restorative Justice Initiative was established to provide a unique and profound learning environment for "inside" and "outside" students alike. Kate served as an intern, and worked to develop restorative practice workshops for children in Springfield City Schools. As a volunteer, she trained as a facilitator during the first semester of the project.

In 2014 she was honored with the Charles J. Ping Award for her outstanding leadership and contributions to community service and service-learning on the Wittenberg campus and its local community. This student-service award is sponsored by the Campus Compact, an organization of 43 Ohio colleges and universities, to recognize involved and dedicated undergraduate students.

After graduating from Wittenberg, Kate served in Springfield as an AmeriCorps VISTA member at an assets-based poverty alleviation non-profit, the Springfield Promise Neighborhood. She worked as Health and Wellness Leader in direct connection with under-resourced families. Promise serves the attendance zone of an elementary school that is home to the city's most vulnerable children; 100% qualify for the federal free-lunch program.

Kate Causbie '10 with April Little, Vice Principal of Academics.

Her primary projects included Promise Grows, connecting the neighborhood's efforts to the school garden; after-school programming, bringing wellness programming to the curriculum by supervising volunteer-led "Promise Clubs" and Thursday-night "Family Café" meals intended to get youngsters excited about eating well; and reforming classroom management and training other volunteers.

#domefortheholidays – Young Alumnae Celebrate at HNA

An enthusiastic group of alumnae from the Classes of 2005 through 2015 gathered in the parlors to visit, enjoy refreshments, and pause for group photos by the Christmas tree. They moved into the auditorium for the presentation of the 2015 Young Alumnae Community Service Award to Kate Causbie '10 by April Little, Vice Principal of Academics. (See more on facing page.)

CLOTHING DRIVE SUCCESS

Jubilee Women's Center was impressed with the clothing donations collected and delivered to the Center's boutique last fall from the two-day HNA Alumnae Clothing Drive. The volume of clothing collected was very generous, and the items—separated by clothing type and sized—saved Jubilee volunteers hours of sorting.

Kathryn Robinson '34 blesses her friend, Mary Laya, at Kathryn's 100th birthday party.

Sister Kate Buzard, SNJM '50 receives the Community Champion Award.

Winnie Turner Coleman '53 and Marianne D'Amico Mack '51 at Dominican University of California reunion.

Joe and Chris Sifferman Hauser '60 in front of the Parliament Building in Budapest, Hungary, celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

1930s

Kathryn O'Neill Robinson '34 celebrated her 100th birthday on October 16, 2015, surrounded by her family and a few close friends. Kay was born in 1915 in Fargo, ND and moved to Seattle with her family in 1930, where she attended Holy Names Academy as a 9th grader. She returned to Fargo for two years, then completed high school at HNA in 1934. After graduation, she worked as a bookkeeper and married Carl Robinson (Seattle Prep) in 1939. Together, they raised six children. Kay worked as head of absentee ballots for the Elections Department in Seattle. She is a sports enthusiast and watches all of the local teams on TV. Kay still remembers most of the classmates in her graduating class. In the 1934 edition of the Excalibur yearbook, she was voted the "healthiest" in her class and "as constant as the stars." How true those early observations have become!

1950s

Sister Kate Buzard, SNJM '50 was recently named a "Community Champion" by Molina Healthcare of Washington, and, in her name, the agency donated $1,000 to Our Place Ministries of Spokane. Sister Kate was nominated by Cherie Moss, Development Director at Our Place Ministries, for her extensive volunteer work there.

Winnie Turner Coleman '53 and Marianne D'Amico Mack '51 share the same high school and college alma maters. Winnie credits Marianne for influencing her to attend Dominican College (now Dominican University of California). They now meet at the university's reunions. Winnie lives in San Rafael, CA and Marianne travels from Bainbridge Island, WA.

1960s

Chris Sifferman Hauser '60 and her husband, Joe, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a party given by their three children at their home on the Skykomish River. The celebration continued with a month-long trip to Europe, where the couple renewed their vows at a private Mass at the Vatican and attended a special audience with Pope Francis. In addition to Italy, they visited Spain (touring Seville and Granada) and the Czech Republic (Prague). Their travels included a Viking Cruise with friends down the Danube River, with stops in Germany, Austria (Vienna, Salzburg), Slovakia, and Hungary (Budapest). It was a trip of a lifetime!

Ruth Cyra Larsen '63 and her husband, Ken, moved to Tucson, AZ and are living in SaddleBrooke, an "active-adult" community. It gets cold there at night, "but the sun shines every day!"

Maureen Newman, SP '64 celebrated her Golden Jubilee as a Sister of Providence in October. She attended a three-month sabbatical program in England this past fall.

Dr. Mary Boys, SNJM '65 was recently honored with the Nostra Aetate Award by the National Catholic Center for Holocaust Education. The award acknowledges distinguished work in the field of Jewish-Catholic relations, in particular, scholarship that enhances interfaith understanding.

Mary E. Peterson Singler '69 is pleased to announce that her doctorate was awarded on January 9, 2015. She obtained her PhD in Mind-Body Medicine, with a specialization in Healthcare Systems, from Saybrook University. In 2010, she obtained a Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) from Dominican University of California as a Nurse Educator and Clinical Nurse Specialist (CNS) in Integrated Health Practices. Mary's interests lie in developing educational programs that are aimed at healthcare reform from a bottom-up, personalized level, with the end-goal of expanding perspectives about health in order to improve the health of the nation. She credits her success in graduate school, including being awarded the "Master of Science in Nursing Outstanding Graduate Student Award," to the superb education that she received at Holy Names Academy.

1980s

Susan Wickwire '85 has returned to Seattle after living in Washington, DC, for over 20 years. She previously was Chief of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Energy Supply and Industry Branch. She is now executive director of Seattle 2030 District, a group focused on reducing energy and water usage by 50%.

by 2030 across the district, which runs from SoDo through South Lake Union, and from the waterfront to Capitol Hill and First Hill. The group works with businesses and buildings in the community, enabling them to learn about their energy use and to make changes, from setting up tracking systems to employing practices that save money, energy, and water.

Angela Miller Rose '88 launched PoshSportswear.com, an online retailer specializing in fashion spiritwear for female sports fans. She started by selling University of Washington women's apparel and has since advanced to selling women's spiritwear for all major sports teams in the Pacific Northwest, including Seattle Seahawks, Seattle Mariners, UW Huskies, WSU Cougars and GU Zags.

1990s

Lisa Mrkvicka Mudgett '98, husband Dan, and their sons Owen, Elliott, and Joshua welcomed the couple's fourth son, Isaac Maxwell, to the family in February 2015. The happily exhausted family lives in Seattle.

2000s

Kylie Boos '08 and her sister, Grace Boos '15, took an HNA banner to the top of Mt. Kilimanjaro, at Uhuru Peak (19,341 feet) on July 31, 2015 at 8 a.m. They departed from base camp (15,000 feet) at midnight the same day—summitting in 8 hours. They began their climb on Africa's highest peak (and the highest free-standing mountain in the world!) on Sunday, July 26.

2010s

Brooke Burns '10 moved to France in summer 2014 and has recently completed her first semester of a two-year, joint master's program in Economics and Psychology at the Sorbonne and the University of Paris V – Descartes.

Natasha Li '11 graduated from Washington State University, is living in Boise, ID, and began working at HP, Inc., as a software engineer in July 2015.

Daron Mackie '11 graduated in International Studies with a focus on Africa from the University of Oregon in 2015 and is currently interning in Gulu, Uganda until June, 2016 with Krochet Kids International (KKi), a social entrepreneurial venture that enables women in poverty-stricken regions of the world to rise above poverty and become self-sufficient. Daron first visited Uganda with Seattle-based Sister Schools at the age of 12, studied abroad in Dakar, Senegal, as a junior in college, and is now pursuing a career aimed at empowering women and girls in the developing world.

Sarah Martinez '11 is currently in Guatemala for eight months committed to service work for a program called Education and Hope. Located in the highlands of Guatemala in the city of Quetzaltenango (commonly known as Xela), the organization's purpose is to increase access to education among impoverished children and young adults by providing comprehensive scholarships and offering academic reinforcement with after-school tutoring.

Annica Mae Mattus '11 graduated from the University of Washington with a degree in Political Science, specializing in Political Economy, and a minor in Law, Societies, and Justice. She began law school at American University, Washington College of Law, in Washington, DC, this past fall.

Katie Lee '13 accepted a summer internship with Garmin (makers of GPS and fitness technology). She is currently studying Mathematics and Computer Science at Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology in Terre Haute, IN.

Courtney Pharr '13 was named to the Capital One Academic All-District I Volleyball team. She is a biology major on the pre-med track at Clark University in Worcester, MA, minoring in bioinformatics and computer science and a LEEP Scholarship recipient. She serves as a member of the university's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and Athletic Board, and recently founded a community-service program with a local Boys & Girls Club. Courtney has participated in Clark Athletics service-learning trips to the Dominican Republic and Guatemala.

Marlee Blue '15 and Katy Gillingham '15 were selected—both for a second year in a row!—to compete for the United States at the World Rowing Junior Championships. They and their two USA boatmates in the Women's Four (W4-), took first place in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, on August 8. Their boat was the only USA entry to win a gold medal at the world's highest level of competition for junior rowers. Marlee and Katy are continuing their rowing journey together in their first year at the University of Washington.

In Memoriam: Sister Ann Cornelia Sullivan, SNJM '56, 1938–2015

Excerpts from reflections by Liz Eldredge Swift '71, Head of School and Principal:

Sister Ann Cornelia Sullivan, SNJM '56 faithfully and lovingly served Catholic schools for 52 years; the last 36 were at Holy Names Academy.

In those years, she held many different leadership positions; she served as an administrator, taught history, and often was called on to “pinch hit” in a variety of capacities. However, she began her career at Holy Names and ended her career in a position where she was a rock star—as a librarian.

Sister Ann was an avid reader with a surprisingly wide range of interests—and her book recommendations, which were many, were always spot on.

Sister Ann also had a deep commitment to the SNJM Charism, and actively lived her faith through a life of service. She had an incredible sense of service, an openness to change and progress, and a wonderful sense of humor. She was always willing to pitch in and help wherever needed—on the CHEER Auction, Deck the Dome, computer training, proctoring tests, assisting in the Attendance Office, or serving on a myriad of committees—and not just at Holy Names, but for the Archdiocese, on accreditation teams, and on regional librarian associations. She spent summer after summer training countless teachers in the Archdiocese in computer skills.

A passion of Sister Ann's was the Holy Names archives, which she lovingly collected, organized, and cataloged. She has left us an amazing legacy of knowledge of the SNJM Charism and history of Holy Names Academy.

Most of all, she left us with the model of a life well lived: even as she faced her final transition in this world, she was positive, humorous, and faith-filled. Thank you, Sister Ann. We will miss you.

Not pictured: Current HNA student Mallory Johnson '17 also attended this three-day gathering at which women in computing can discuss research and career interests. The nationally celebrated conference, first held in 1994, was inspired by the legacy of U.S. Navy Rear Admiral Grace Murray Hopper, a pioneering computer scientist who was one of the first programmers of the Harvard Mark I computer in 1944.

RECENT GRADS SHARE COLLEGE EXPERIENCES

At a brown-bag lunch in December, a panel of 10 of HNA's most recent alumnae addressed the query "What life is REALLY like after HNA?" and answered questions for current students curious about college life. The Class of 2015 grads shared their experiences at the colleges they currently attend.

The panelists, pictured right, middle (listed alphabetically): Camille Basto (DePaul University - Illinois); Molly Bucklin (University of Washington); Tayah Carlisle (Loyola University - Chicago); Wendy Donier (Regis University - Colorado); Charley Englehart (Western Washington University); Elly French (Franklin University - Switzerland); Miranda Hardy (Wellesley College - Massachusetts); Kelsi Riley (California Institute of Technology); Anna White (Northwestern University - Illinois); Madeline White (University of Southern California).

HNA ALUMNAE CONNECTIONS REGIONAL GATHERINGS REACH THE EAST COAST

Liz Eldredge Swift '71, Head of School and Principal, and Conne McGlynn Bruce '89, Planned Giving Director, traveled to Boston and Washington, DC, last fall, meeting with HNA alumnae in both cities. In Boston, they hosted a dinner that included the crew and parents, as well as alumnae living in the area, and the next day they watched HNA rowers compete at the Head of the Charles Regatta. In Washington, 16 alums from graduate years ranging from 1944 to 2014 (pictured right, bottom) gathered at the historic Pen Arts Building—arrangements courtesy of Elaine Walsh Waidelich '44.

CAFÉ'S CREATION SOLVES THE CURIOUS CASE OF THE MISSING WALLET

During renovation of the cafeteria into the new HNA Café in summer 2015, the maintenance staff and contractors found a dusty wallet sandwiched behind old walls. The contents of the brown leather wallet revealed that it may have been missing for some 34 years—since 1981. It held a Student Body card from the 1978-79 school year; a Seattle Public Library card dated October 3, 1981; a Master lock combination card (2-12-38), a Washington Athletic Club Junior Privilege card, and photos of school friends. The owner of the wallet's name was Cherie L. Brindle.

The unique twist to this found object? Renovation of the new HNA Café was significantly funded by a very generous bequest to Holy Names Academy from Winn and Joan Lenoue Brindle '56, the parents of Cherie Brindle Liuni '82. Her wallet would likely not have been found were it not for the Brindles' extraordinary commitment to Catholic education. Cherie's sister, Karen Brindle '77 attended the dedication and blessing of the new HNA Café. Karen recently visited Cherie in Israel and reunited the wallet with its owner.

Career Day – Inspire Students! Share Your Profession!

Come spend a morning under the Dome making connections with current HNA students by sharing your educational choices, professional training, and career path. Career Day 2016 is Wednesday,

April 20, 9 a.m.– noon. This opportunity for students in grades 9 through 11 is coordinated by Megan Diefenbach and Alice Tanaka, HNA College Counselors. They seek speakers from a wide variety of careers. To participate, or for more information, please contact Christie Spielman, alumnae@holynames-sea.org or (206) 720-7804, by March 4, 2016.
