FROM HEAD OF SCHOOL & PRINCIPAL

Dear Alumnae and Friends,

As you can see from the images in this issue of the Columns, our school community is thrilled with the myriad of possibilities presented by the new facilities in the Mary Herche Pavilion. Opened in May, the 3-story structure provides students and staff with a state-of-the-art fitness center, a new student commons, an expanded cafeteria, a Board Room for meetings, an outdoor patio, and a conference/testing center. At the same time the new pavilion was constructed, the library was renovated and a new ADA-accessible elevator was added to the main building.

The new fitness center includes treadmills, ellipticals, weight machines, interactive bikes, and a variety of other equipment including a Wellbeats program of spin, yoga, Zumba classes, and more. This facility, motivated by the long-range strategic goal of restructuring our physical education program to emphasize lifetime fitness and health, furthers the Academy's dedication to an education that supports development of all facets of personal and academic growth.

The addition of a student commons, expanded cafeteria seating, and reconfigured library – all with charging stations — not only provides wonderful new spaces for students to gather and experience community, but also facilitates the changing nature of education and work places. Collaboration, dialogue, and digital research are key components to education in the 21st century. The new spaces provide a wonderful resource for students to continue their conversations beyond the classroom.

All of these new facilities provide the resources and inspiration for our students to develop their talents and excel — and excel they continue to do. Here are a few highlights from the end of the 2016-2017 school year:

- Once again, Holy Names Academy was named in the top 1% of high schools across the nation in The Washington Post's annual ranking of "America's Most Challenging High Schools."
- Three different HNA teams won their respective WIAA State Championship, one in each sports season of the year: cross country, gymnastics, and tennis — the first State title ever for the HNA gymnastics and tennis programs.
- HNA crew had another spectacular showing at the USRowing Youth National Championships, including a gold medal, in this, the 14th consecutive year our athletes have qualified for the nation's highest level of competition for high-school rowers. The national gold went to our Lightweight 4+ boat, which finished first with open water in the championship race.
- For an unprecedented 10th year in a row, our teams collectively won the Seattle Metro League's All-Sports Trophy for young women, given to the school with highest average finish in league competitions among the 17 public and private schools in the league.

Thank you for your interest and support,

Liz Eldredge Swift '71

WELCOME TO THE NEW MARY HERCHE PAVILION!

MARY HERCHE PAVILION

This spring, Holy Names Academy students enjoyed their first chance to make use of the school's most significant building project in three decades: The new Mary Herche Pavilion, a three-story structure that joins the south side of the landmark 1908 building to the 1990 Jeanne Marie McAteer Lee Gymnasium.

“HONESTLY, I WAS SPEECHLESS. IT’S AMAZING!”

—NINA JOSEF '18

THE NEW MARY HERCHE PAVILION PROVIDES STUDENTS WITH:

- A state-of-the-art fitness center to promote lifetime fitness among all students.
- A commons area in which students can gather, collaborate, share digital information, or just relax.
- An outdoor rooftop deck, a multipurpose conference room, expanded seating in the HNA Café (formerly the cafeteria—now unrecognizable to the generations of alums who ate there!).

The project also includes major improvements to the library, and a new, ADA-accessible elevator—to supplement (not replace!) the historic elevator in the main building.

The pavilion—designed by Broderick Architects—is named in honor of Mary Herche (pronounced hersh), alumna parent, community leader, and former President of the HNA Board of Trustees. Mary’s family joined her for dedication ceremonies and a celebration on June 6, 2017.

The Mary Herche Pavilion furthers the school’s commitment in recent years to what Head of School and Principal Liz Swift '71 describes as “creating spaces that match today’s learning style.”

Current students, who began to use the facility in May, concur. “Super impressed with all the open space and the beautiful natural lighting,” says Bridget McFaul '18. “I feel excited for all the memories I’ll make next year.”

FACTS FROM HNA'S COLLEGE COUNSELORS

ALL 177 MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 2017 PLAN TO CONTINUE THEIR EDUCATION.

The graduates were admitted to 208 different institutions, of which they have chosen to attend 86 – located in 31 states and four foreign countries (Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, and Scotland).

One-hundred fifteen members of the Class of 2017 received the Washington State Honors Award, which is given to the top 10% of seniors in the State of Washington on the basis of SAT or ACT scores, and an unweighted grade point average. This means that over 65% of our seniors ranked in the top 10% of the students in Washington.

87.6%

87.6% of the Class of 2017 collectively received offers of academic scholarships and awards totaling $33.83 million dollars. Approximately $6.3 million, or just under 19%, of the awards will actually be used to fund their educations.

CHEER! 2017 IS THE "BEE'S KNEES"

An energetic and generous crowd of more than 360 Academy parents, alumnae, faculty and staff, and friends gathered on March 25 for the annual CHEER! dinner and auction. In celebration of the "Speakeasy" theme, guests dressed for the "Roaring 20's."

The event set a new record, raising more than $475,000 to purchase equipment for the fitness center in the new Mary Herche Pavilion, helping provide all current and future students with a start on fitness for life. In addition, the Funded Item portion of the evening provided support for furnishings in the Pavilion's commons areas, giving students a comfortable place to gather, meet, study, or just relax. Besides daily student use, the commons areas are flexible enough to accommodate special events for alumnae and parents.

Don and Sarah Rice were honored as the Top Cats 2017 for their amazing support of HNA for the past 23 years. They first volunteered at the Academy when their daughter Nikki '98 entered the school and have been key contributors to every CHEER! auction and Deck the Dome since. In addition, Don, a member of the HNA Maintenance team for the past 13 years, goes above-and-beyond every day.

To accommodate the now-completed construction of the Mary Herche Pavilion, CHEER! 2017 was held at Fremont Studios. This fabulous venue worked so well that CHEER! will return there for the 2018 event.

LEGACY SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON HNA LEGACY SOCIETY: STELLA DUROCHER ZIPP '37

It was in 1933—amidst the Great Depression—that the Sisters of the Holy Names visited the Durocher family home. Their plan: to make it financially possible for Stella Durocher to join her older sister, Lucille, at Holy Names Academy. And so it was that Stella Durocher Zipp joined the Class of 1937. The youngest sister, Rosalie, followed eventually—graduating with the Class of 1953. Nine of Stella's own daughters also chose the Academy. Stella has never forgotten the fine gift that the Sisters gave to her and to her family. Catholic education became such a value to Stella and her late husband, Frank Zipp, that they decided to include the Academy in their estate plan, becoming members of the HNA Legacy Society. An interesting fact about Stella's family: One of Stella's grandfathers was a cousin of Mother Marie Durocher, founder of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

In May 2017, Stella Durocher Zipp '37 was back under the Dome to celebrate 80 years since her graduation. She joined her daughter, Catherine Zipp Hetzler '67, for Mass in the chapel and the first luncheon ever held in the new Mary Herche Pavilion. What a celebration! Congratulations, Stella and Catherine!

SENIOR APPEAL

Thanks to the Class of 2017 for another successful Senior Appeal. Each year on Senior Appeal Day, the Development staff speaks to the seniors about the role of the Annual Giving program at HNA and the importance of supporting the Academy after graduation. The Class of 2017 were exceptionally supportive in their commitment to Annual Giving. We are so grateful to the graduates and wish them the best of luck as they embark on their college careers. We look forward to seeing them back under the Dome soon.

ALUMNAE LUNCHEON

IS SWEET!

On March 4, a beautiful, sunny day in Seattle, alumnae from many different generations gathered for the annual Alumnae Luncheon, held this year at the Seattle Golf Club. Laughter and joy spread as alumnae reconnected and reminisced. We honored Distinguished Alumna Erin Terzieff '95 and heard about her inspirational work educating children on the Thailand-Burma boarder. Sally Gilmour De La Vergne '41 received the honor of earliest graduate in attendance, and Amina Kapusuzoglu '12 again earned the distinction of most recent alumna in attendance. Members of the Class of 1980 received the award for the class with the highest attendance at the luncheon.

2017 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA

ERIN TERZIEFF '95

HNA and the Alumnae Board honored Erin Terzieff '95 as the 2017 Distinguished Alumna for Outstanding Commitment to Community. Over the past 10 years, Erin has worked with schools, teachers, local leaders, powerful advocates, and committed donors to support children on the Thailand-Burma border, some of the world's most marginalized young people. Migrant-school projects she has championed include providing a full operating farm, school store, and exceptional P.T.A. In addition to galvanizing support for Good Morning School, Erin has partnered with local community-based organizations to fund projects and operations at countless other Burmese migrant schools.

In 2012, Erin founded All You Need Is Love, a nonprofit that facilitates safe education for Burmese migrant children who live in conflict and crisis on the border of Thailand and Burma. This year, after building a grade a year, All You Need Is Love is celebrating its first

Over the years, Erin has collaborated on projects with such visionaries as the founder of Amnesty International, Jack Healey; Nobel Prize winner Dr. Mohammed Yunus; the Chairwoman of the Burmese Migrant Worker's Education Committee, Naw Paw Ray; Nobel Prize nominee Dr. Cynthia Maung; the co-founder of the U.S Campaign for Burma, Jeremy Woodrum; and film director James Cameron and his wife, Suzy. Erin continues to teach human rights to American students in Los Angeles. In her free time, she clean water, medical care, operating costs, building construction, capital projects, scholarships, teacher training, and organizing an international volunteer program.

In 2007, Erin started working with Good Morning School, a Burmese learning center in Mae Sot, Thailand. What began as a one-room hut with 40 children developed into the standard of excellence in the migrant school system. Good Morning School now has almost 300 children, 18 staff, high-school graduating class, sending 15 students on toward their dreams. As a passionate teacher for nearly 16 years, Erin has developed instincts for nurturing the school campus, staff, and students to create a safe and comfortable learning environment. In 2014, Good Morning School was the recipient of the Thai Ministry of Education's highest award for Migrant Learning Centers and recognized as the No. 1 migrant school in Tak Province.

The day before the Alumnae Luncheon, Erin visited HNA to speak to all of the students about her work with Good Morning School. Erin's story inspired students and faculty to get involved with her work; students have raised funds for her organization, and religion teacher Amanda Baumgartner volunteered to teach at Good Morning School this summer.

On May 13, alumnae from the Class of 1967 and earlier attended the 50/50PLUS Reunion, which honors alumnae who graduated from HNA a half-century or more ago. Mass in the chapel was followed by a trio of celebrations throughout the building. Commemorating their milestone-50th reunion, the Class of 1967 enjoyed a catered lunch hosted by the Alumnae Board and HNA in the newly opened Mary Herche Pavilion. To mark their 60th reunion, the Class of 1957 gathered in the 3rd-floor personnel lounge for lunch, while all other alumnae attended a beautiful reception in the parlors. The earliest graduate in attendance was Stella Durocher Zipp '37, who celebrated her 80th reunion alongside her daughter, Cathy Zipp Hetzler '67, who was in turn marking her 50th anniversary!

It is always a joy to hear the Academy's hallways filled once again with the stories and laughter of these cherished alumnae. A '67 alumna perfectly captured the spirit of the day: "To be in the company of so many gorgeous, powerful, smart, and generous women celebrating our communion of shared history was profoundly humbling and inspiring. I know it sounds corny, but my life is so much richer for having looked into our classmates' eyes again and heard our voices mingle together."

OTHER ALUM EVENTS

CLOTHING DRIVE

In February, the Alumnae Board hosted its annual two-day Clothing Drive at St. Joseph's Parish to benefit the Jubilee Women's Center. Thanks to donations from alumnae and friends of HNA, the Alumnae Board collected a record number of items and delivered 133 bags of clothing to Jubilee Women's Center, nine bags to St. Francis House, and three bags to Westside Baby. Thank you for all of your donations!

CHILDREN'S PUPPET SHOW

In May, alumnae brought their children and grandchildren to Thistle Theatre's production of the puppet show Three Billy Goats Gruff. It was great to see the little faces light up as the puppets danced across the stage!

WINE TASTING

SNIFF SWIRL
AND SIP 2017

We had a great turnout for the seventh annual wine tasting event in the HNA parlors on April 28. Guests enjoyed wine from four Washington wineries — Mark Ryan Winery, Parejas Cellars, Otis Kenyon Wine, and Karma Vineyards — and accompanying food pairings. They were also treated to delicious chocolates from Dolcetta Artisan Sweets, owned by Andrea Terrenzio '88, and received HNA-logo wine glasses to take home.

ALUMNAE UPDATES

Betty McDonald Sheridan '42 has four children, five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Doris Tierney Wilkinson '45 stopped by to visit HNA over the summer. She recently celebrated her 90th birthday and lives in a lovely retirement home in Lynnwood. Doris has five children, 12 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren! During her tour of HNA, Doris recalled her time singing under the Dome. She even spotted herself in a 1944 photo, which hangs on HNA's 2nd floor, of the Holy Names Cecilians. Doris earned a four-year vocal scholarship to Seattle University.

Maryhelen Kaufer Sinclair '46 had 60 people gather in her home for their annual Christmas party last year, including 28 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Mary Anna Culleton Colwell was a boarding school student at HNA from 1939-1940. She lives in Oakland, CA, and recently visited HNA during a trip to Seattle to celebrate her 90th birthday. Mary Anna's father was an Army officer, and her education was often interrupted by the family's moves. Mary Anna was sent to Holy Names for 8th grade to prepare her for high school. She has many fond memories of HNA and enjoyed the tour, especially revisiting the chapel and the 4th floor, where the dorm rooms were located when she attended HNA. Mary Anna said that much had changed in the 77 years since she last saw the school, but that it was exciting to see that the vibrant school community had only grown.

1950s

The Seattle Times ranked Patricia Lesser Harbottle '51 as one of the top 5 women golfers in state history! While she was at HNA, Patricia earned the title of Women's Pacific Coast Golf Champion and was the HNA Athletic Club President.

Continued

Helen Larsen Velling '51 has a granddaughter in each grade at HNA this year! They are: Kaitlin Lindell '18, Romy Forster '19, Emma Velling '20, and Tess Forster '21. Helen also has another alumna granddaughter: Delaney Lindell '13.

Lanora Wakefield Churchill '54 and her husband moved to Kent, Washington, after 16 years in Arizona.

Maureen Cain Curulla '54 is Docent at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in San Jose, California. She has been married for 57 years and is active in Santa Teresa Parish. She is so grateful for a family of 17 who enjoy each other.

Carmen Gonzalez Wanaka '59 lives in Mattawa, Washington, and has been married for 56 years. She has four children, 12 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren. She loves life, singing, and acting as Lector at Mass.

1960s

Judith Hilton Brusseau '69 serves as a Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation at Holy Trinity Parish in Washington, D.C.

Mimi Krsak '69 retired after 27 years at Seahurst Elementary, Burien, teaching refugee and immigrant children English and American culture, and a total of 40 years as a teacher. Mimi writes, "I will spend the next year at my cabin in Mason County, pretending I'm Thoreau, then return to my home on Capitol Hill."

1970s

Cynthia Heye Lamothe '71 has been the General Manager of Skyway Water and Sewer District since March 2013.

Gail Rodriguez '73 lives in Columbia, South Carolina, working for VRX, Inc. out of Plano, Texas, as a Senior Structural Engineer.

Sheila McEvoy '76 has been caring for her blind horse, who took her through several years as an "eventer," including dressage, show jumping, and cross-country jumping. Sheila has not competed in a while, but she takes care of her horse the way he took care of her.

1980s

Ana Kosnik Stern '80 and her husband, Dr. Fredric Stern, own a winery, Noviello Vineyards, located in Orondo, Washington.

Mary Pennylegion '81 and her daughter, Maddy Flemming '13, were flying from London to Seattle when they were surprised by the subject of the film they were watching during the flight. While on the flight, Maddy encouraged Mary to watch the film, "Denial," which is based on the high-profile libel suit filed by Holocaust denier David Irving against renowned historian Deborah Lipstadt. Little did Mary or Maddy know that Deborah was on the same flight! While they were watching the film, Deborah approached them and introduced herself. In a subsequent Facebook post, Deborah said she "loved" meeting Mary and Maddy and was even left "verklemt [Yiddish for choked up with emotion]" by the meeting. Maddy is an actress and student at Southern Oregon University, and the film held a special resonance with her. She had appeared in a student production of "The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui," a 1941 "parable play" by Bertolt Brecht that mirrors the rise of the Nazi Party in pre-World War II Germany.

Mary Styer Ramey '81, RN, CDE, is the co-manager of the Diabetes Clinical Research Program in the Benaroya Research Institute at Virginia Mason.

Felicia Cross '83 is working as a crime-prevention coordinator for the Seattle Police Department. She was previously the longtime chair of the African American Community Advisory Council, which was created in 1996 as a forum for the African American community to provide input to the department.

The Honorable Meagan Flynn '85 was appointed to the Oregon Supreme Court, that state's highest bench, by Governor Kate Brown and sworn in April 4, 2017. Justice Flynn had previously served on the Oregon Court of Appeals since 2014. She is one of three women currently serving on the seven-member Oregon Supreme Court. In a statement, Governor Brown said that Justice Flynn earned a reputation as a smart and thoughtful judge while serving on the Oregon Court of Appeals, and is regarded as fair-minded and compassionate.

Erna Schippers '86 attended HNA as an exchange student from Holland. After more than 30 years, she came back to visit Seattle and HNA. Erna currently lives in Holland, has two daughters, and works as a training manager for the Dutch Railways.

1990s

Leila Cummings Curtis '97 is married and has two sons. She works as a deputy prosecutor in King County and lives in Northeast Tacoma (Brownspoint) with her family.

Erica Lynch Gist '97 has been married for 15 years and has a daughter, 11. She works for a medical device start-up company and lives in San Diego, California, with her family.

2000s

Anna Wiggs Sebree '01, HNA's librarian, received the 2017 Loeken Award, which recognizes a faculty or staff member who has "gone the extra mile" in service to the Academy. Anna earned her B.A. in English and M.A. in Library and Information Science from the University of Washington. She lives in Seattle with her husband, Daniel.

Carly Lopez '05 is a Senior Associate Producer at The Ellen Degeneres Show and recently earned an Emmy Award! Carly has worked on The Ellen Degeneres Show since 2011. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies from Pitzer College.

Bianca Connell-Flint '05 was sworn into the Washington State Bar Association. Bianca is also licensed to practice in New York State. She received a B.A. in Accounting from Seattle University and also earned her law degree from SU. Bianca was recognized for her outstanding community service during law school, and received The Mentorship Award through the Black Law Student Association. Bianca has joined her father, Raymond A. Connell, in his legal practice, Connell Law Office, PLLC.

University, returns to Seattle in September to pursue a Master of Social Work degree at Seattle University. She currently serves as Scheduler and Executive Assistant to U.S. Representative Derek Kilmer of Washington's 6th District.

Lily Shafer '10 works for The Institute for Learning & Brain Sciences (I-LABS) at the University of Washington, an interdisciplinary research center for early learning and brain development. Lily is a specialist who supports the Outreach and Education team, which disseminates the latest science of child development to the broader community. Lily is involved in many aspects of I-LABS activities, including the summer internship programs and science fairs. She works on various projects for the National Center on Early Childhood Development, Teaching and Learning, and supports the Outreach team on other projects, like creating one-pagers to accompany their modules. The one-pagers highlight take-home messages from the modules and provide applicable activities parents and caregivers can try with their children. Lily is also pursuing her master's degree at Seattle University at night while working full time at I-LABS.

Breanne Batara '11 earned a B.A. in Art History from the University of Washington in 2015. She moved to San Francisco in August 2016 and is currently a graduate student in the Museum Studies Program at the University of San Francisco. She will graduate in December 2017. She has held internships in the Bay Area, most recently at the Oakland Museum of California.

Erika Johnson '11 was spotlighted by The Seattle Times in its "Where Are They Now" feature, which noted that the "Holy Names star" has joined former HNA basketball coach Lee Adams as an assistant coach at Garfield High School. Erika said she loves coaching, which is helping her learn the game more. She sees herself grooming players and sharing her success stories and struggles. Erika helped lead the Cougars to the 2011 Class 3A State championship and was named by the The Seattle Times as girls' Player of the Year.

Andra Amador Basil '12 was part of a team that helped open 3W Medical for Women, a new, non-profit, women's healthcare clinic serving the University District of Seattle. The clinic offers services free of charge or for a nominal cost. You can find more information at 3wmedical.org.

Gemma Holt '13 completed studies at Williams College and was awarded a Fullbright Foundation research grant to study climate-change governance and sustainable development in Finland. She will be enrolled as a student at the University of Lapland and work as part of a research team at Finland's national institute for Arctic studies. This project is a continuation of Gemma's senior thesis at Williams, which examines how Arctic institutions can evolve to create a sustainable future for the region. Gemma will live in Rovaniemi, a small city six miles from the Arctic Circle. As a Fulbright grantee, Gemma will be a student, a researcher, and a cultural ambassador for the United States.

Laura Scott '14 lived in Los Angeles this summer and participated in Occidental College's InternLA program. She was awarded a $4,000 stipend and internship at Southern California Public Radio (KPCC) in Pasadena.

Julia Dolejsi '15 will be a junior at the University of Portland, working toward earning a double major in nursing and Spanish. Last fall, she studied abroad for a semester in Granada, Spain, where she took classes through the University of Granada. During her time abroad, Julia traveled throughout Spain and visited Morocco and Portugal.

The University of Washington women's rowing team recently won the NCAA championships by sweeping all three events (1v8+, 2v8+, and v4+), which has never been previously done! Katy Gillingham '15 was in 5 seat of the varsity 8, Marlee Blue '15 was in stroke seat of the second varsity 8, and back home holding down the fort and raising the level of the team were teammates Lydia Ely '16, Meg Rutherford '16, and Emily Astrom '16.

Peyton Miller '17 won the Audience Choice Award at the National Film Festival for Talented Youth ("NFFTY") for her documentary short Paint By Number Person, a film about type 1 diabetes. Peyton originally produced the two-minute film for entry to Dodge College of Film and Media Arts at Chapman University in California, but NFFTY accepted the film and featured it. Seattle-based NFFTY is the world's largest film festival for emerging film directors. Over 2,200 filmmakers from around the world submit entries; this year only 257 films were shown. Peyton was featured on KOMO 4's Seattle Refined: <http://seattlerefined.com/lifestyle/seattle-teens-film-makes-nffty-debut>.
